

IJM Opportunities Information Session

November 19, 2013, 6:00 PM

Wean Hall 5304

Email cmu.ijm@gmail.com to register

IJM is currently recruiting professionals and students from a variety of disciplines, including: communications, investigations, fundraising, accounting, information systems, administration and more.

Come and learn about how you can apply your education, skills, and experience to “Seek Justice” for the oppressed around the world.

IJM is an international human rights agency that rescues victims of violence, sexual exploitation, slavery and oppression. Based on referrals of abuse received from relief and development organizations, IJM conducts professional investigations of the abuses and mobilizes intervention on behalf of the victims.
